

MELBOURNE FREE UNIVERSITY

AT CITY SQUARE IN COLLABORATION WITH

»»»»»»»»»» OCCUPY MELBOURNE

In the context of the global Occupy movement, questions of how our economy, society and politics could be organised differently have once again taken centre stage. This series of seminars will invite speakers to explore radical practical ideas on how our world might be, in relation to topics as diverse as inequality, Indigenous politics, democracy, law, gender, climate change, economics and more. This series will run throughout summer.

DAY AND TIME: Tuesdays 7-8:30pm

LOCATION: City Square, cnr. Swanston and Collins St, Melbourne

FORMAT: 40 minute presentation, 40 minute open discussion

MELBOURNEFREEUNIVERSITY

.org

find

MELBOURNE FREE UNIVERSITY
on twitter & facebook

WEEK 4: 10.01.12

PEAK OIL, ENERGY DESCENT, AND THE FATE OF CONSUMERISM

Samuel Alexander (The Simplicity Institute & Melbourne Uni)

WEEK 5: 17.01.12

GAY, LESBIAN, QUEER: THE MOVEMENT THAT WON

Graham Willett (Melbourne Uni)

WEEK 6: 24.01.12

MONEY IN POLITICS: THE CHALLENGE FOR DEMOCRACY

Joo-Cheong Tham (Melbourne Uni)

WEEK 7: 31.01.12

IT'S NOT CRICKET:
GOVERNING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST
IN 21ST CENTURY AUSTRALIA

Leslie Cannold (Author)

CONTINUING ALL SUMMER

